

Weepy the Dragon

Weepy is a dragon, sure, but the dragons nearby would agree that he doesn't act like a dragon at all. He's not angry, scary, and mean. He only eats vegetables with his sharp teeth. He uses his fire-breath as a nightlight because he's afraid of the dark. Worst of all, he tends to cry, something the other dragons - especially his powerful father - would never do! Weepy wants to be more dragony, but he soon finds that being different has its advantages.

Weepy is a dragon, sure, but the dragons nearby would agree that he doesn't act like a dragon at all. He's not angry, scary, and mean. He only eats vegetables. The act of wiener peeping. Done by both male and females, by viewing a man's package hungrily. Weepy fell just short of hitting himself. Forgive my question. I did not mean to trespass.
